CORAM: V.M. KANADE, J.

DATE: 12th April, 2006

P.C.

1. Heard the learned Counsel for the applicant and the learned APP for the State.

2. A complaint was filed against Bhavesh Vora in which it was alleged that he has cheated the complainant and other innocent investors. In the complaint, it is alleged that the present applicant was found to be working with Bhavesh Vora. Apart from the said allegation, there is no allegation either to the effect that she was a party to the said offence or has conspired alongwith the principal accused. The learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant has taken me through the complaint and the material which is on record.

3. In my view, this is a fit case for grant of an anticipatory bail since, prima facie, there is no material to indicate the involvement of the present applicant. There is no need to arrest the applicant for custodial interrogation. The applicant, therefore, in the event of her arrest, in respect of C.R. No. 26 of 2006 registered with the Economic Offence Wing, GBCB CID, Mumbai for the offence punishable under sections 406, 465, 467, 468, 471, 420 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code, be released on bail in the sum of Rs 10,000/- with one or two sureties in the like amount. The applicant shall co-operate with the Investigating Officer and she shall report to the concerned Police Station as and when she is called . The applicant may be called during business hours i.e. 11.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m., after giving her 48 hours' notice.

4. Application is accordingly disposed of.
